

Expressions of interest are sought for a Special Edition of the Journal of Policy and Practice in Intellectual Disabilities (JPPID)

'INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON HEALTHCARE FOR PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES'

We are seeking authors to contribute to a Special Edition of JPPID titled 'International perspectives on healthcare for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.' Authors are invited to provide a comprehensive description of policy developments, service design, practice, and approaches to service user empowerment in health and medical care for people with IDD in their country. These contributions will provide a global perspective on the organisation of health and medical care for those with IDD. We encourage authors to submit a pre-submission inquiry by April 15th 2022. The proposed date for full submission is December 2022.

Informal enquiries can be addressed to Marian.Breuer@radboudumc.nl
